SUBJECT.

From

Ranganna, Beshkar of the chattrams & temples at Seirangapatam

Petition No. 3673 dated 11th March 1908.

The petitioner states that the Vyramudi utsavam of this year comes off on the 14th instant, that the Vyramudi and Rajamudi boxes, off the balance at Mysore, will as usual leave for Melkote on the 13th morning; reach Seirangapatam that evening, with Senas on the way at fixed places; be deposited in the Zalka Treasury at Seirangapatam for the night, and will leave for Melkote the next morning. He prays that he and other devotees may specially

Murray Leg's remarks —

The request made in this petition is not unreasonable, but it has not the sanction of Manu.

It is true that the Vairamudi palangium is stopped at certain stages en route from Mysore to Melkote and the worship & offerings from devotees accepted.

Its being taken to the Sankhyanatharwami temple as now prayed for is against manner and we do not know what objections may be raised in that behalf.
The opinion of the local officers ^{has} ~~is~~ not ~~been~~ received. The pet^r who is the ^{at Seemgapatam} ~~head~~ ^{head} of the temple, ought not to have addressed Gov^t direct in the matter.

There is no time to make the needful enquiries, the file having been received yesterday afternoon and the proposed celebration being for tomorrow the 13th.

I think therefore the R.F. may be informed by wire as follows:—

"Permission to take Vairamudi into Ranganathaswami temple cannot be granted against manual."

A copy of the same ^{may} ~~will~~ be sent to the Amildar.

The R.F. may however be referred to the Dy. Commr. for report & opinion so that any decision that may be passed may be from now on in force next year —

Permission to take Vairamudi into Ranganatha Swami

temple cannot be granted against Mammal +

2. I am ^{desired} to observe it was irregular on the part of the Peshkar to have addressed Govt. Agent in the matter -

3. The request made in the Petn. is not unreasonable and any decision that may be passed on it will depend upon the local feelings & your own opinion in the matter and such decision will be brought into force next year. I am to request detailed report.
